SOUTH WALES

5 DAYS from £565

Gower Peninsula

The Glorious Gower & Tenby

Departs Mon 2nd June 2025

This much-loved area of Wales with beautiful landscapes and seascapes where you can savour the stunning golden beaches of the Gower Peninsula, the welcoming atmosphere of Tenby and visit the impressive National Botanic Garden of Wales.

Day 1 Travel to Carmarthenshire with a visit to Hay-on-Wye and through the impressive Brecon Beacons to enjoy the stunning scenery.

Day 2 After breakfast, we head for a full day visit to the lovely harbour town of Tenby. Take the time to relax on one of the three fabulous soft, golden beaches, potter around the friendly harbour or simply sit and people watch in one of the many cafes. For the more adventurous take the boat to Caldy Island, owned and run by a community of Cistercian monks (boat crossings subject to weather conditions, additional costs apply, payable locally).

Day 3 The day begins with a visit to the National Botanic Garden of Wales. The garden is renowned for its award winning Great Glasshouse which is home to a profusion of rare, fragrant, exotic and spooky plants. In the afternoon we continue to Carmarthen, one of Wales' oldest towns for some free time to explore.

Day 4 A full day to enjoy the beautiful scenery of the glorious Gower Peninsula and The marvellous Mumbles. Areas that are renowned for gorgeous sandy beaches. We visit the Gower Heritage Centre in a converted water mill where a guide will join the coach for a tour of the peninsula's delightful highlights before returning to the centre for a cream tea and a tour of the mill. We then head to Swansea for some free time to explore the waterfront.

Day 5 After breakfast, we head off to the ancient town of Chepstow before returning to the Midlands.

SCOTLAND

5 DAYS from £695

Glamis Castle Visit Scotland Kenny Lam

Pitlochry & Cairngorms

Departs Mon 15th September 2025

The beautiful Victorian town of Pitlochry, situated in the heart of Scotland, has been a tourist destination for over 150 years. This stunning region of the country with its sparkling clean air, rich history and breathtaking scenery makes this the perfect base to discover and explore Highland Perthshire.

Day 1 Travel to the hotel in Pitlochry with comfort stops along the way.

Day 2 After breakfast, we travel to the vibrant city of Dundee, with its new waterfront development and V & A Museum for our first stop of the day. We visit Captain Scott's ship, Royal Research Ship Discovery, where you can explore the ship and relive the hardships and triumphs of the remarkable expedition to the Antarctic. After some time at leisure, we will transfer to Glamis Castle for a guided tour of the splendid childhood home of the late Queen Mother and inspiration for William Shakespeare's Macbeth.

Day 3 Today, we venture into the Cairngorm National Park for a journey on the Funicular Railway to the top of the Cairn Gorm. Take in some of the most spectacular views in Scotland looking across the mountainous landscapes which epitomises this stunning country. An afternoon visit to the magnificent Atholl Palace to discover its fascinating museum, followed by a delicious cream tea.

Day 4 A visit to Scotland is not complete without a classic excursion to a distillery. Blair Athol Distillery is in the centre of Pitlochry and one of the oldest working distilleries in the country, producing 12 year old single malt whiskey drawing the crystal clear waters of the Allt Dour burn. A tour and tasting is included in your visit. Following your visit, you have time at leisure to spend in Pitlochry or an afternoon of relaxation back at the hotel.

Day 5 After breakfast, we journey home with comfort stops along the way back to the Midlands.
